A collection of handwritten letters 'A' and 'a' in various styles, with a large stylized 'A' in the center. The letters are arranged in a circular pattern around the central 'A'. The styles range from simple, clean, and modern to more decorative, cursive, and calligraphic. Some letters are bold and thick, while others are thin and delicate. The colors are primarily black and white, with some letters having a light blue or grey tint. The background is white.

A collection of various handwritten characters and symbols in a stylized, cursive script, arranged in a circular pattern around a central, larger, more complex symbol. The central symbol is a large, bold, black character that resembles a stylized 'R' or a calligraphic flourish. Surrounding it are numerous smaller, similar characters, some of which are variations of the central symbol, others are more abstract, and some are recognizable as letters or numbers in a cursive font. The overall composition is dense and artistic, suggesting a calligraphic exercise or a decorative arrangement.

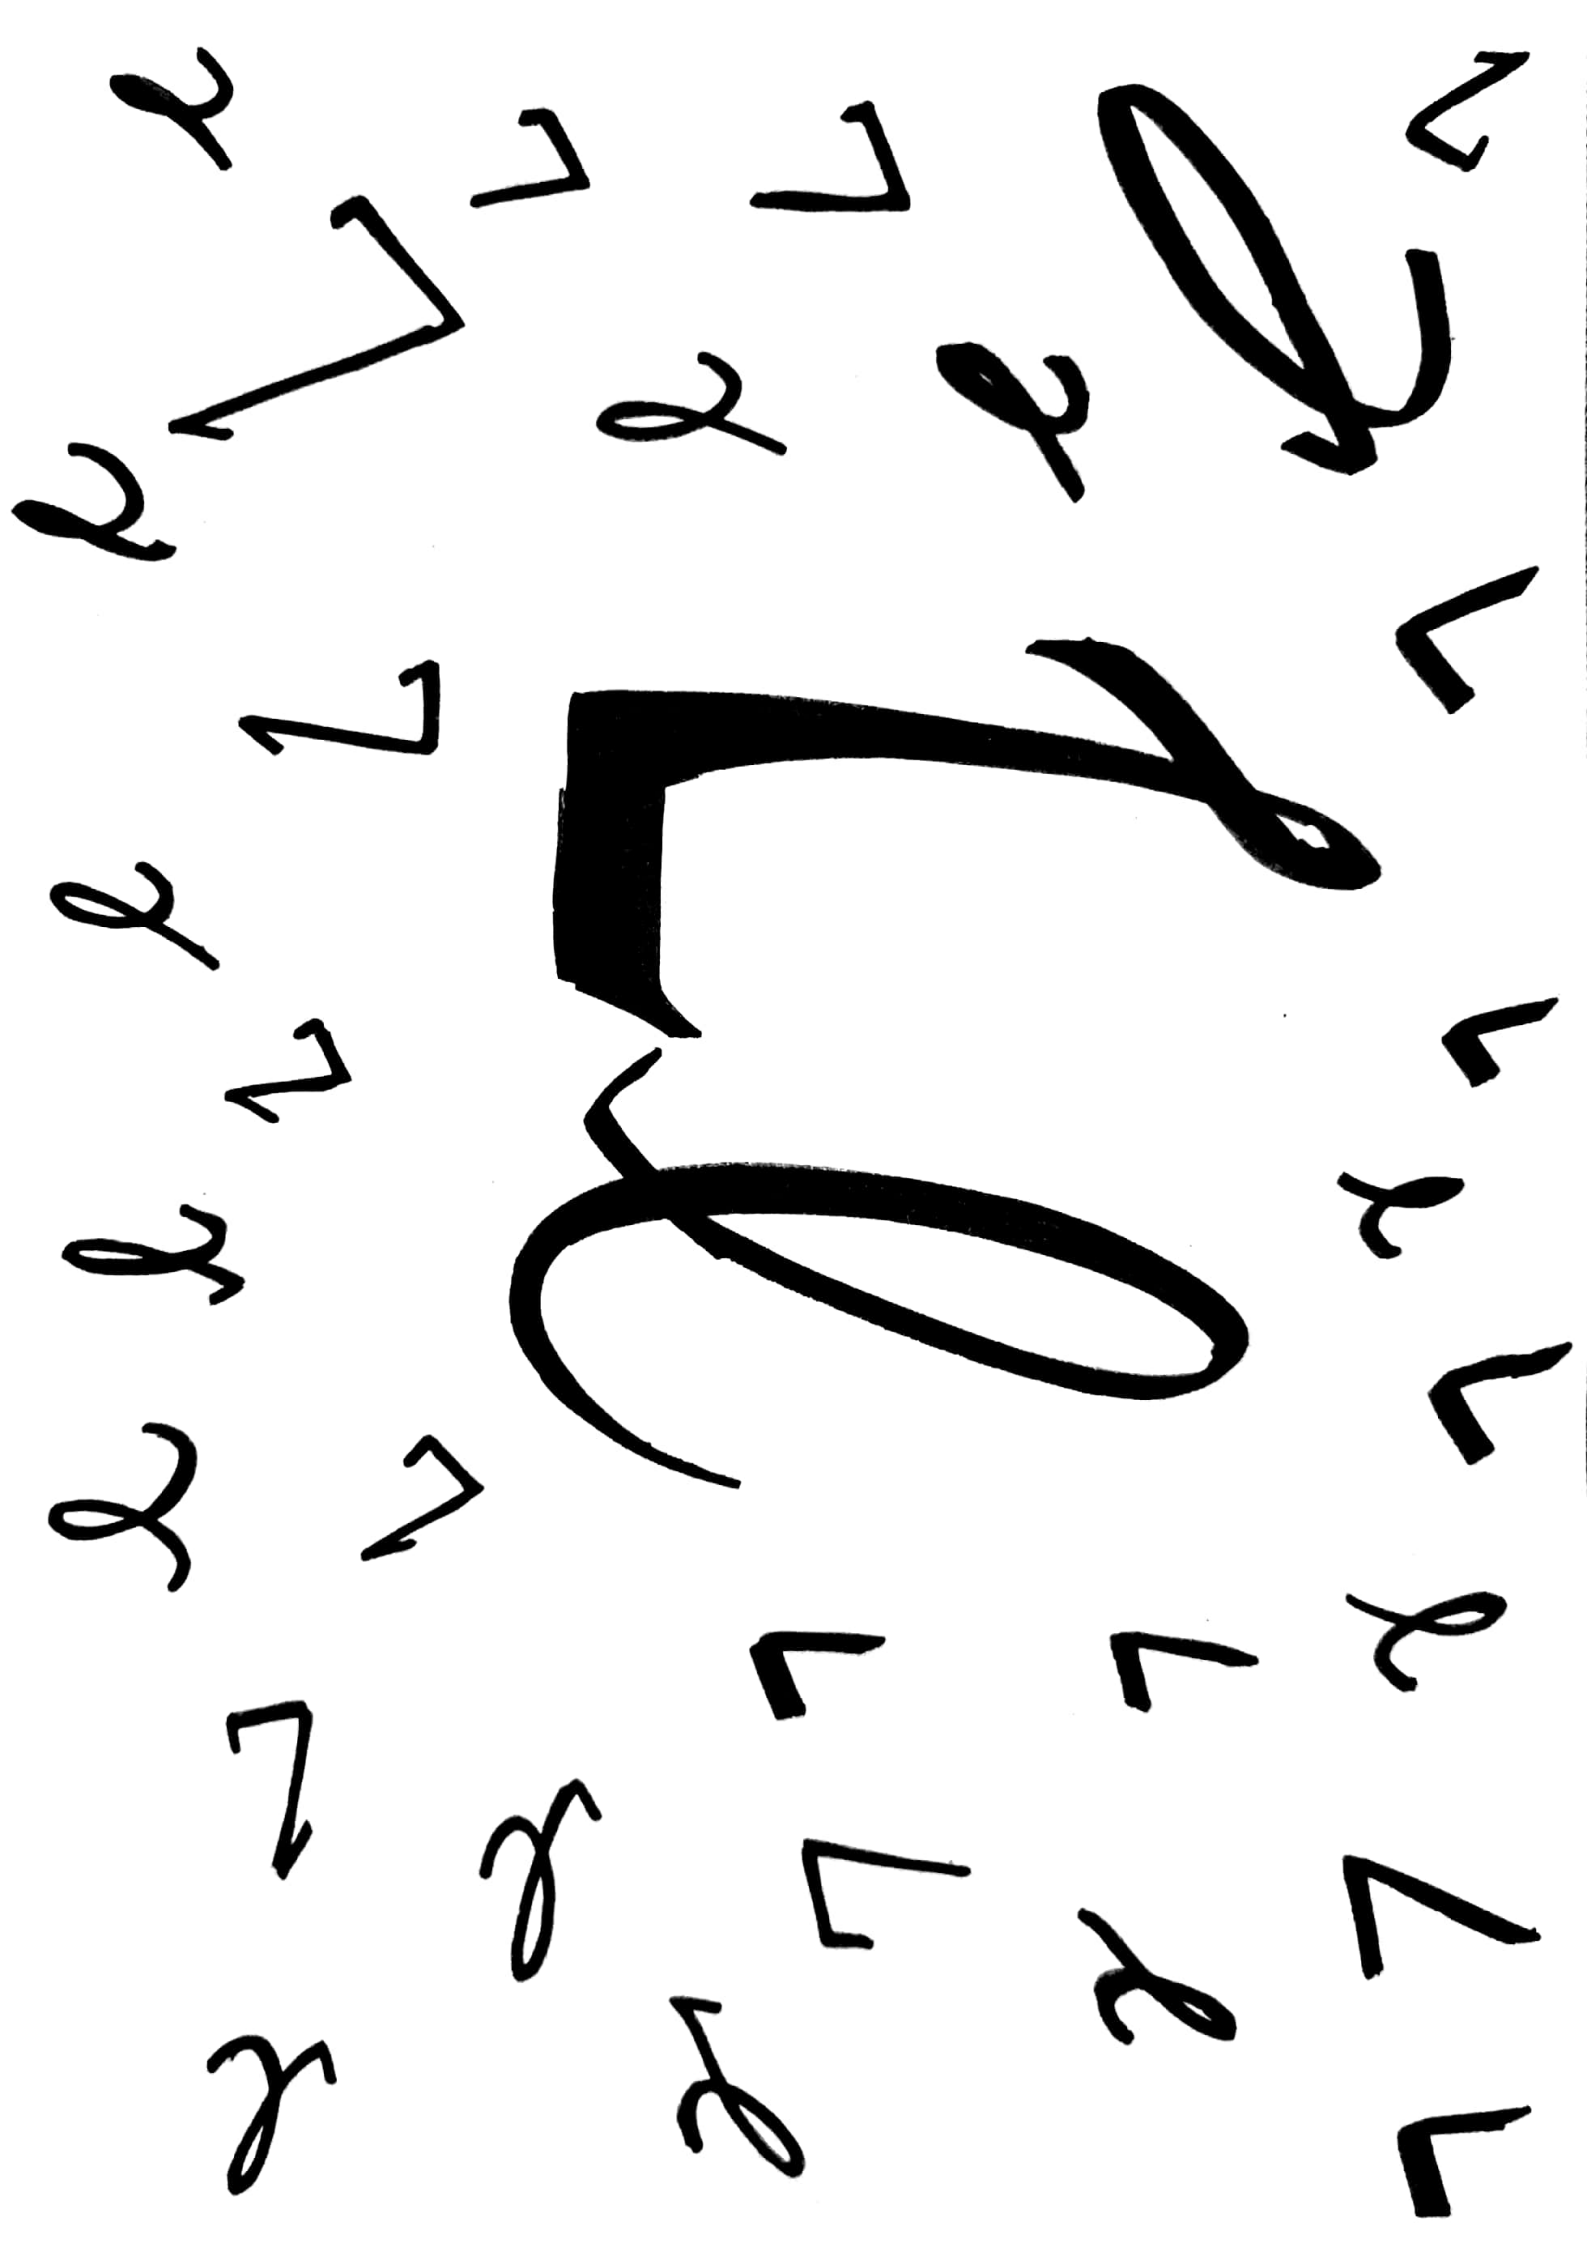

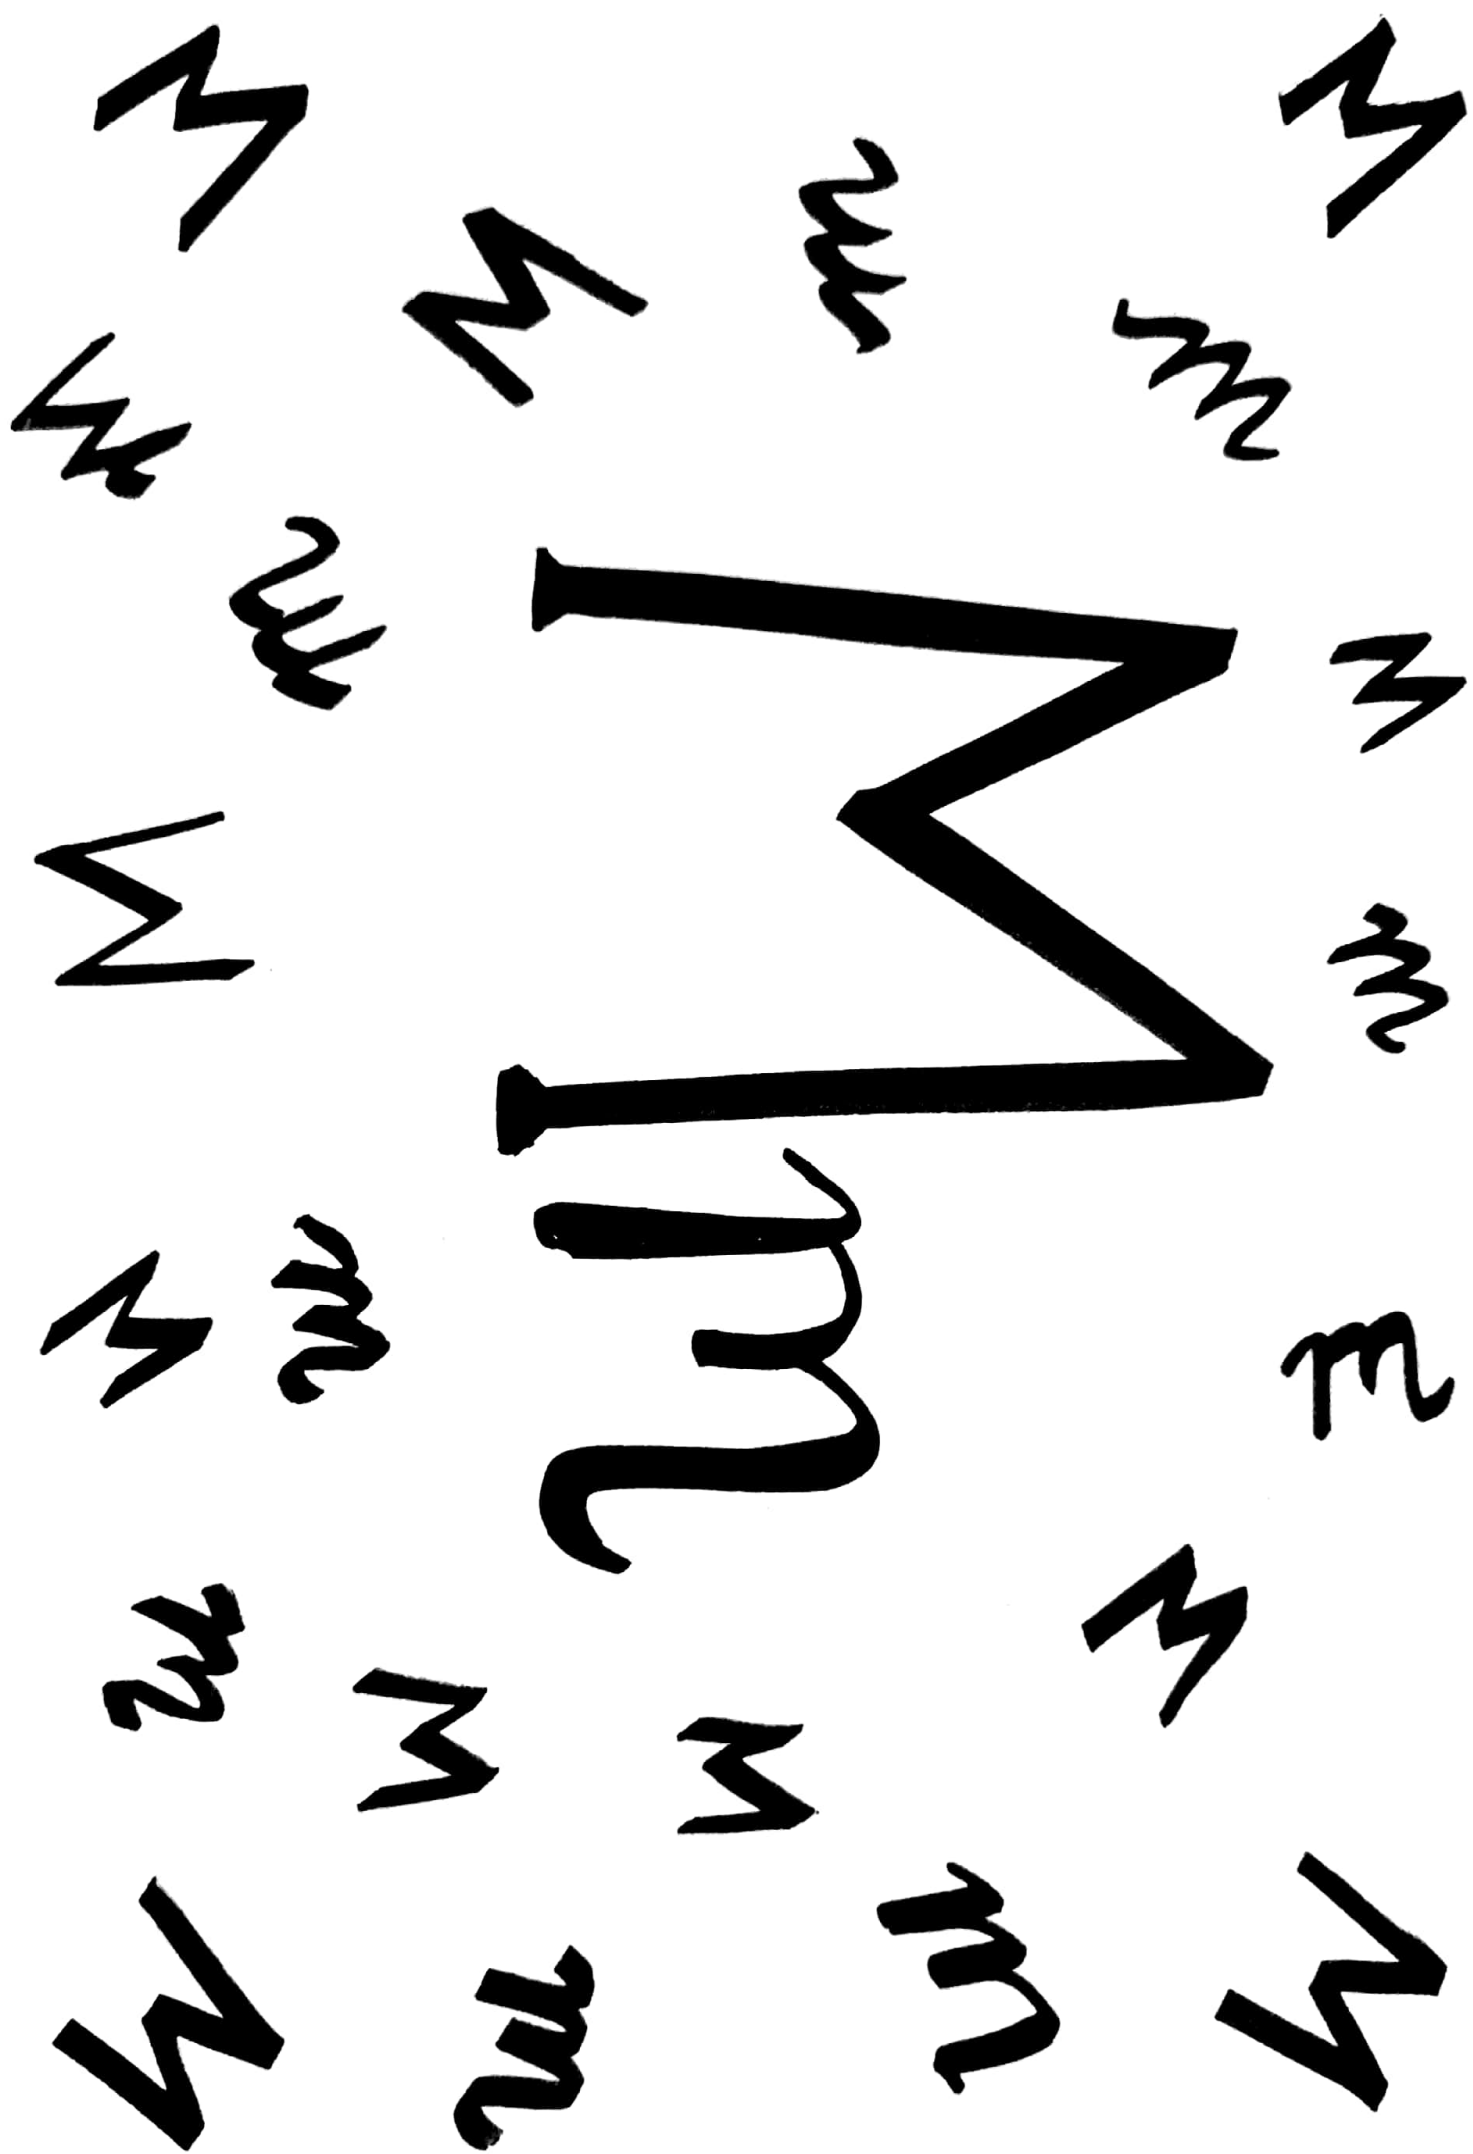

A collection of handwritten letters 'I' and 'i' in various orientations and sizes, with a large 'I' and 'i' in the center. The letters are scattered around the central pair, some upright, some inverted, and some tilted. The central 'I' is a thick, solid black vertical bar with horizontal crossbars. The central 'i' is a thick, solid black letter with a curved tail and a dot. The surrounding letters are smaller and more varied in style, some with dots and some without.

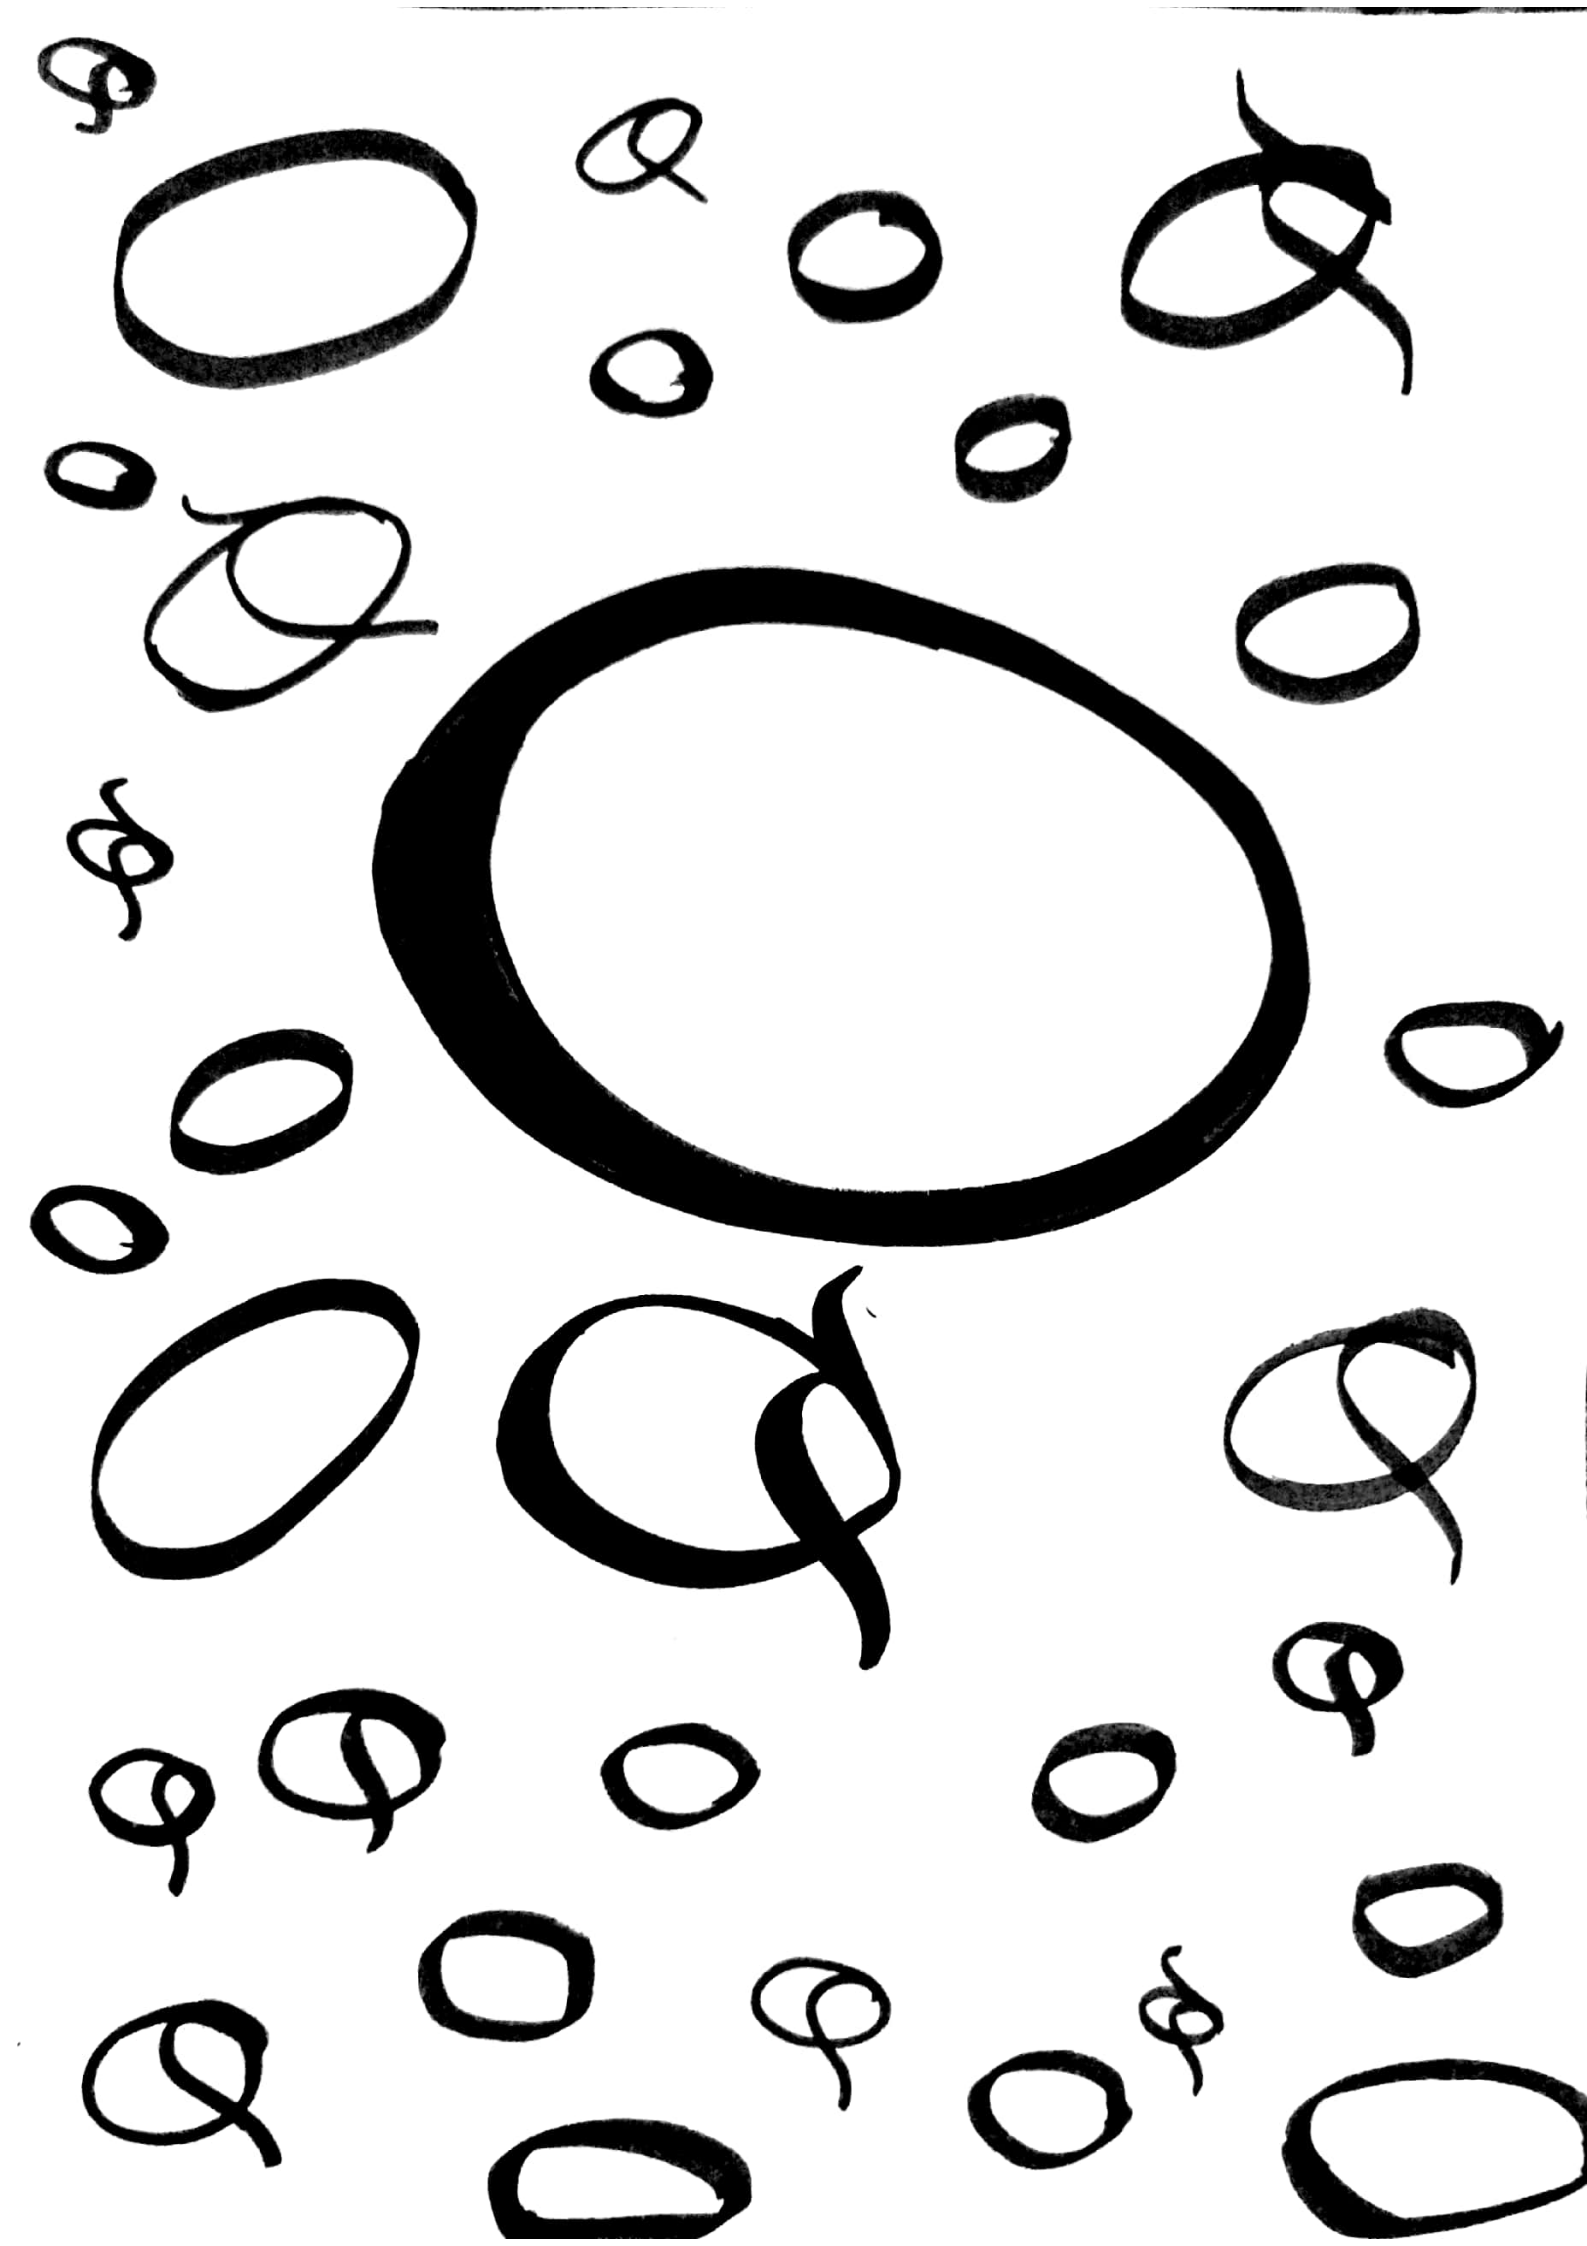

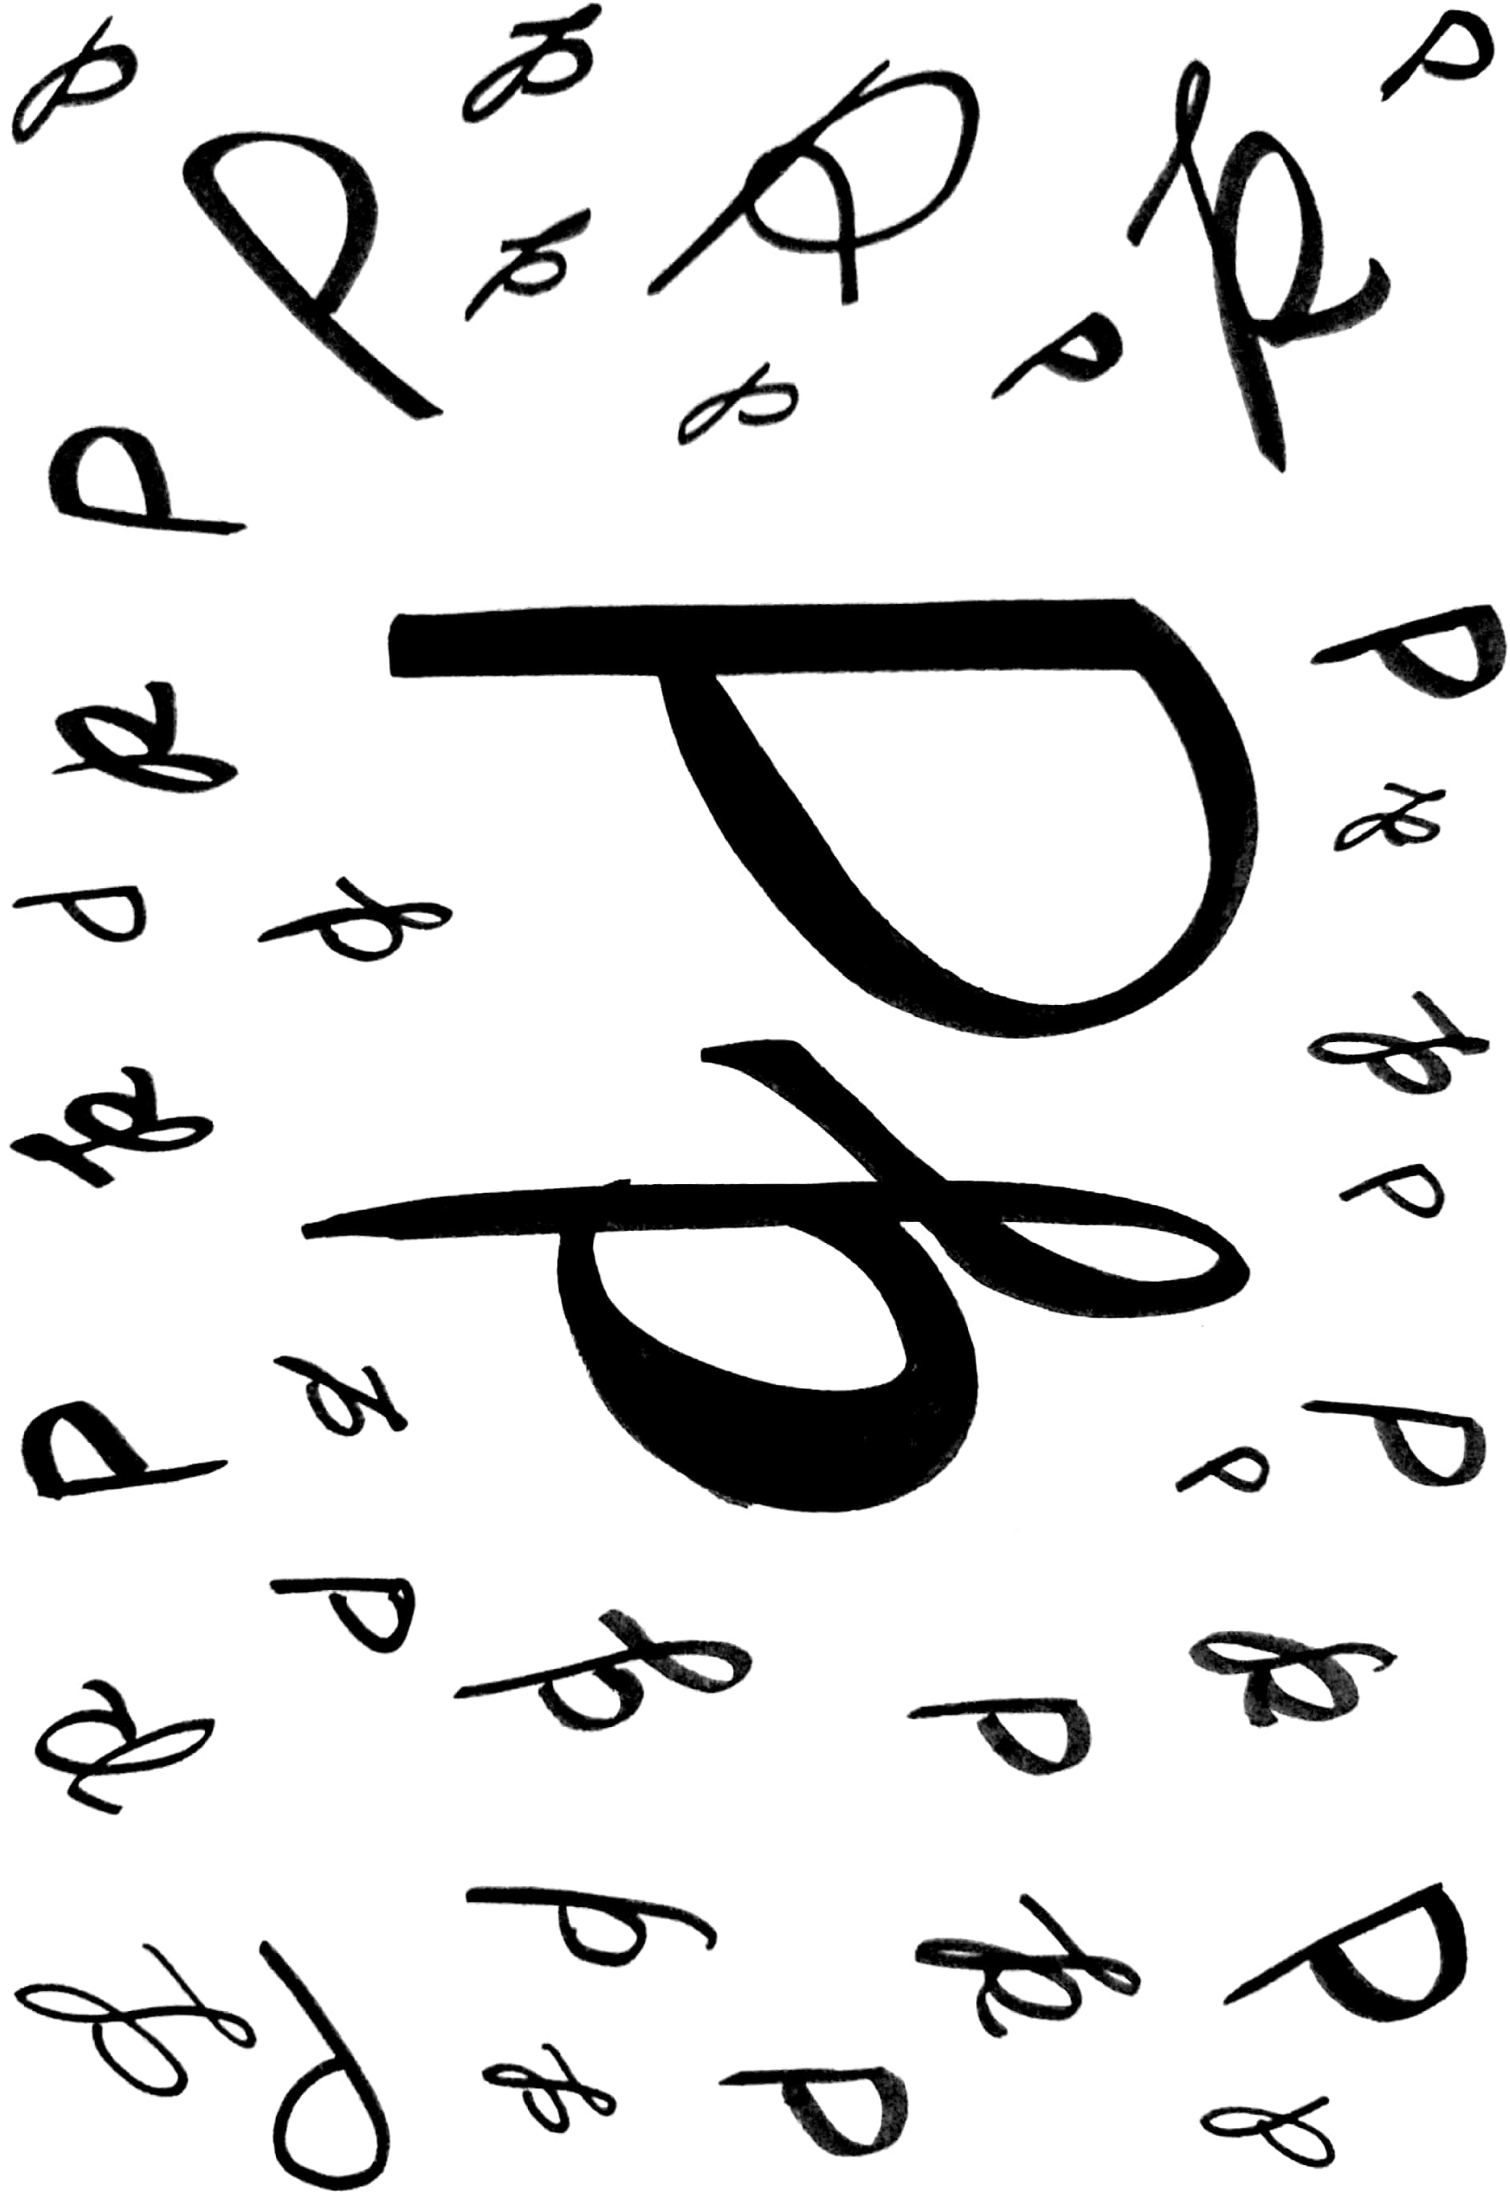

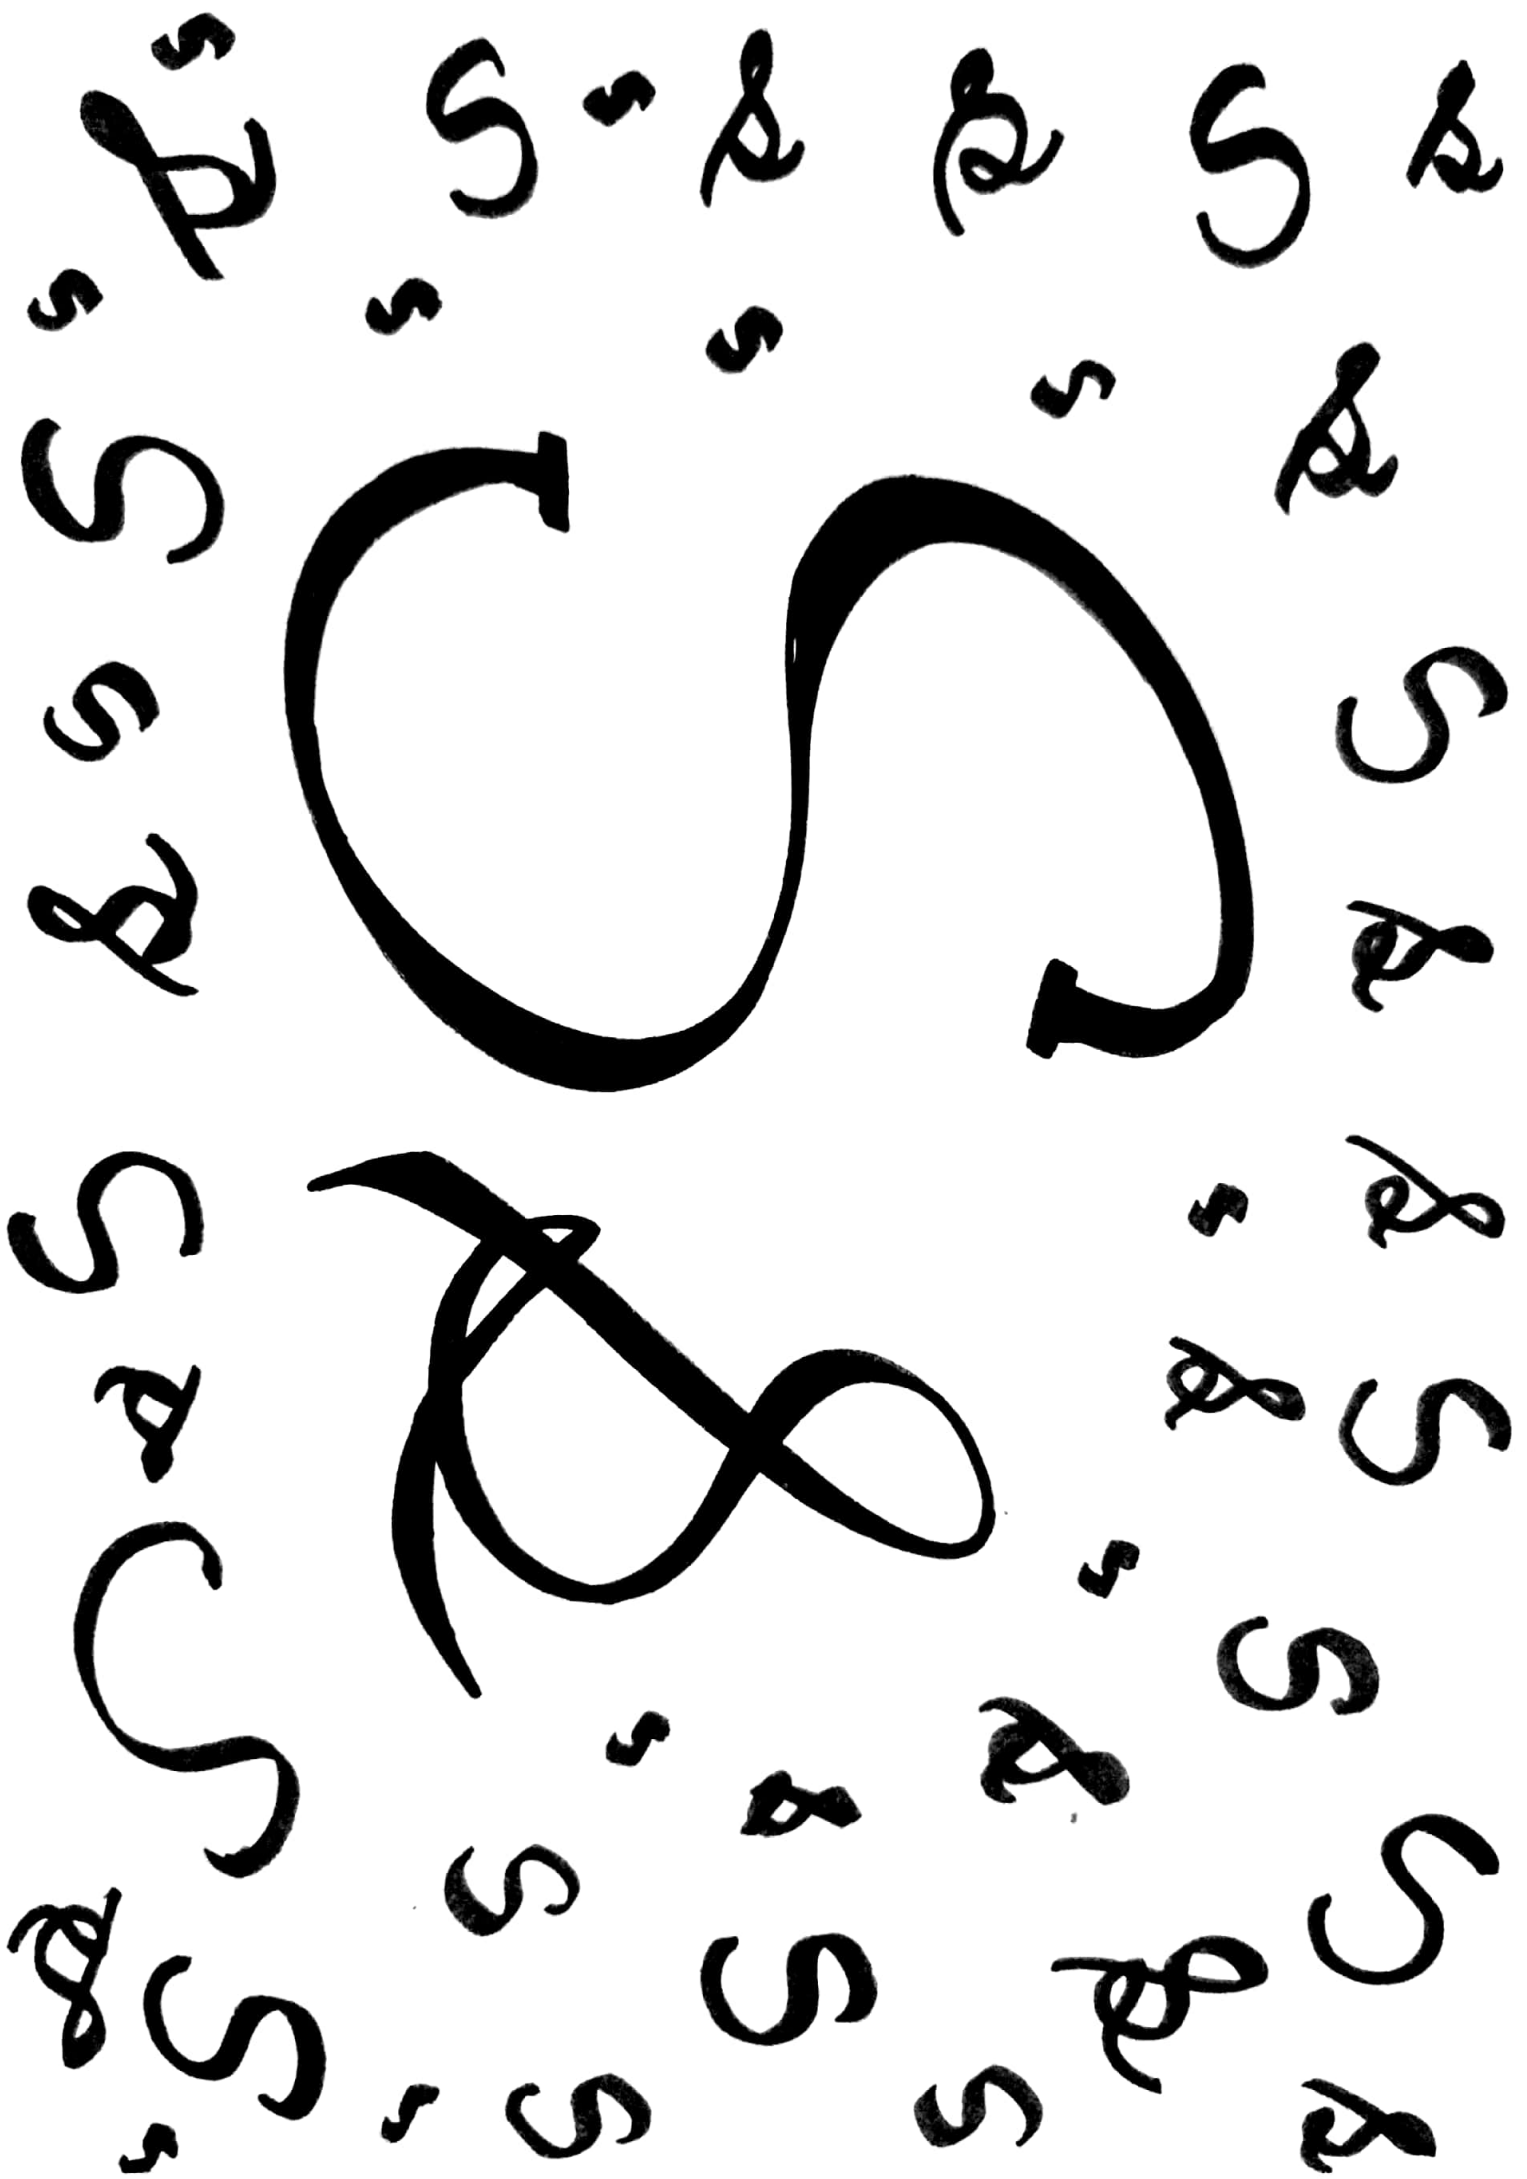

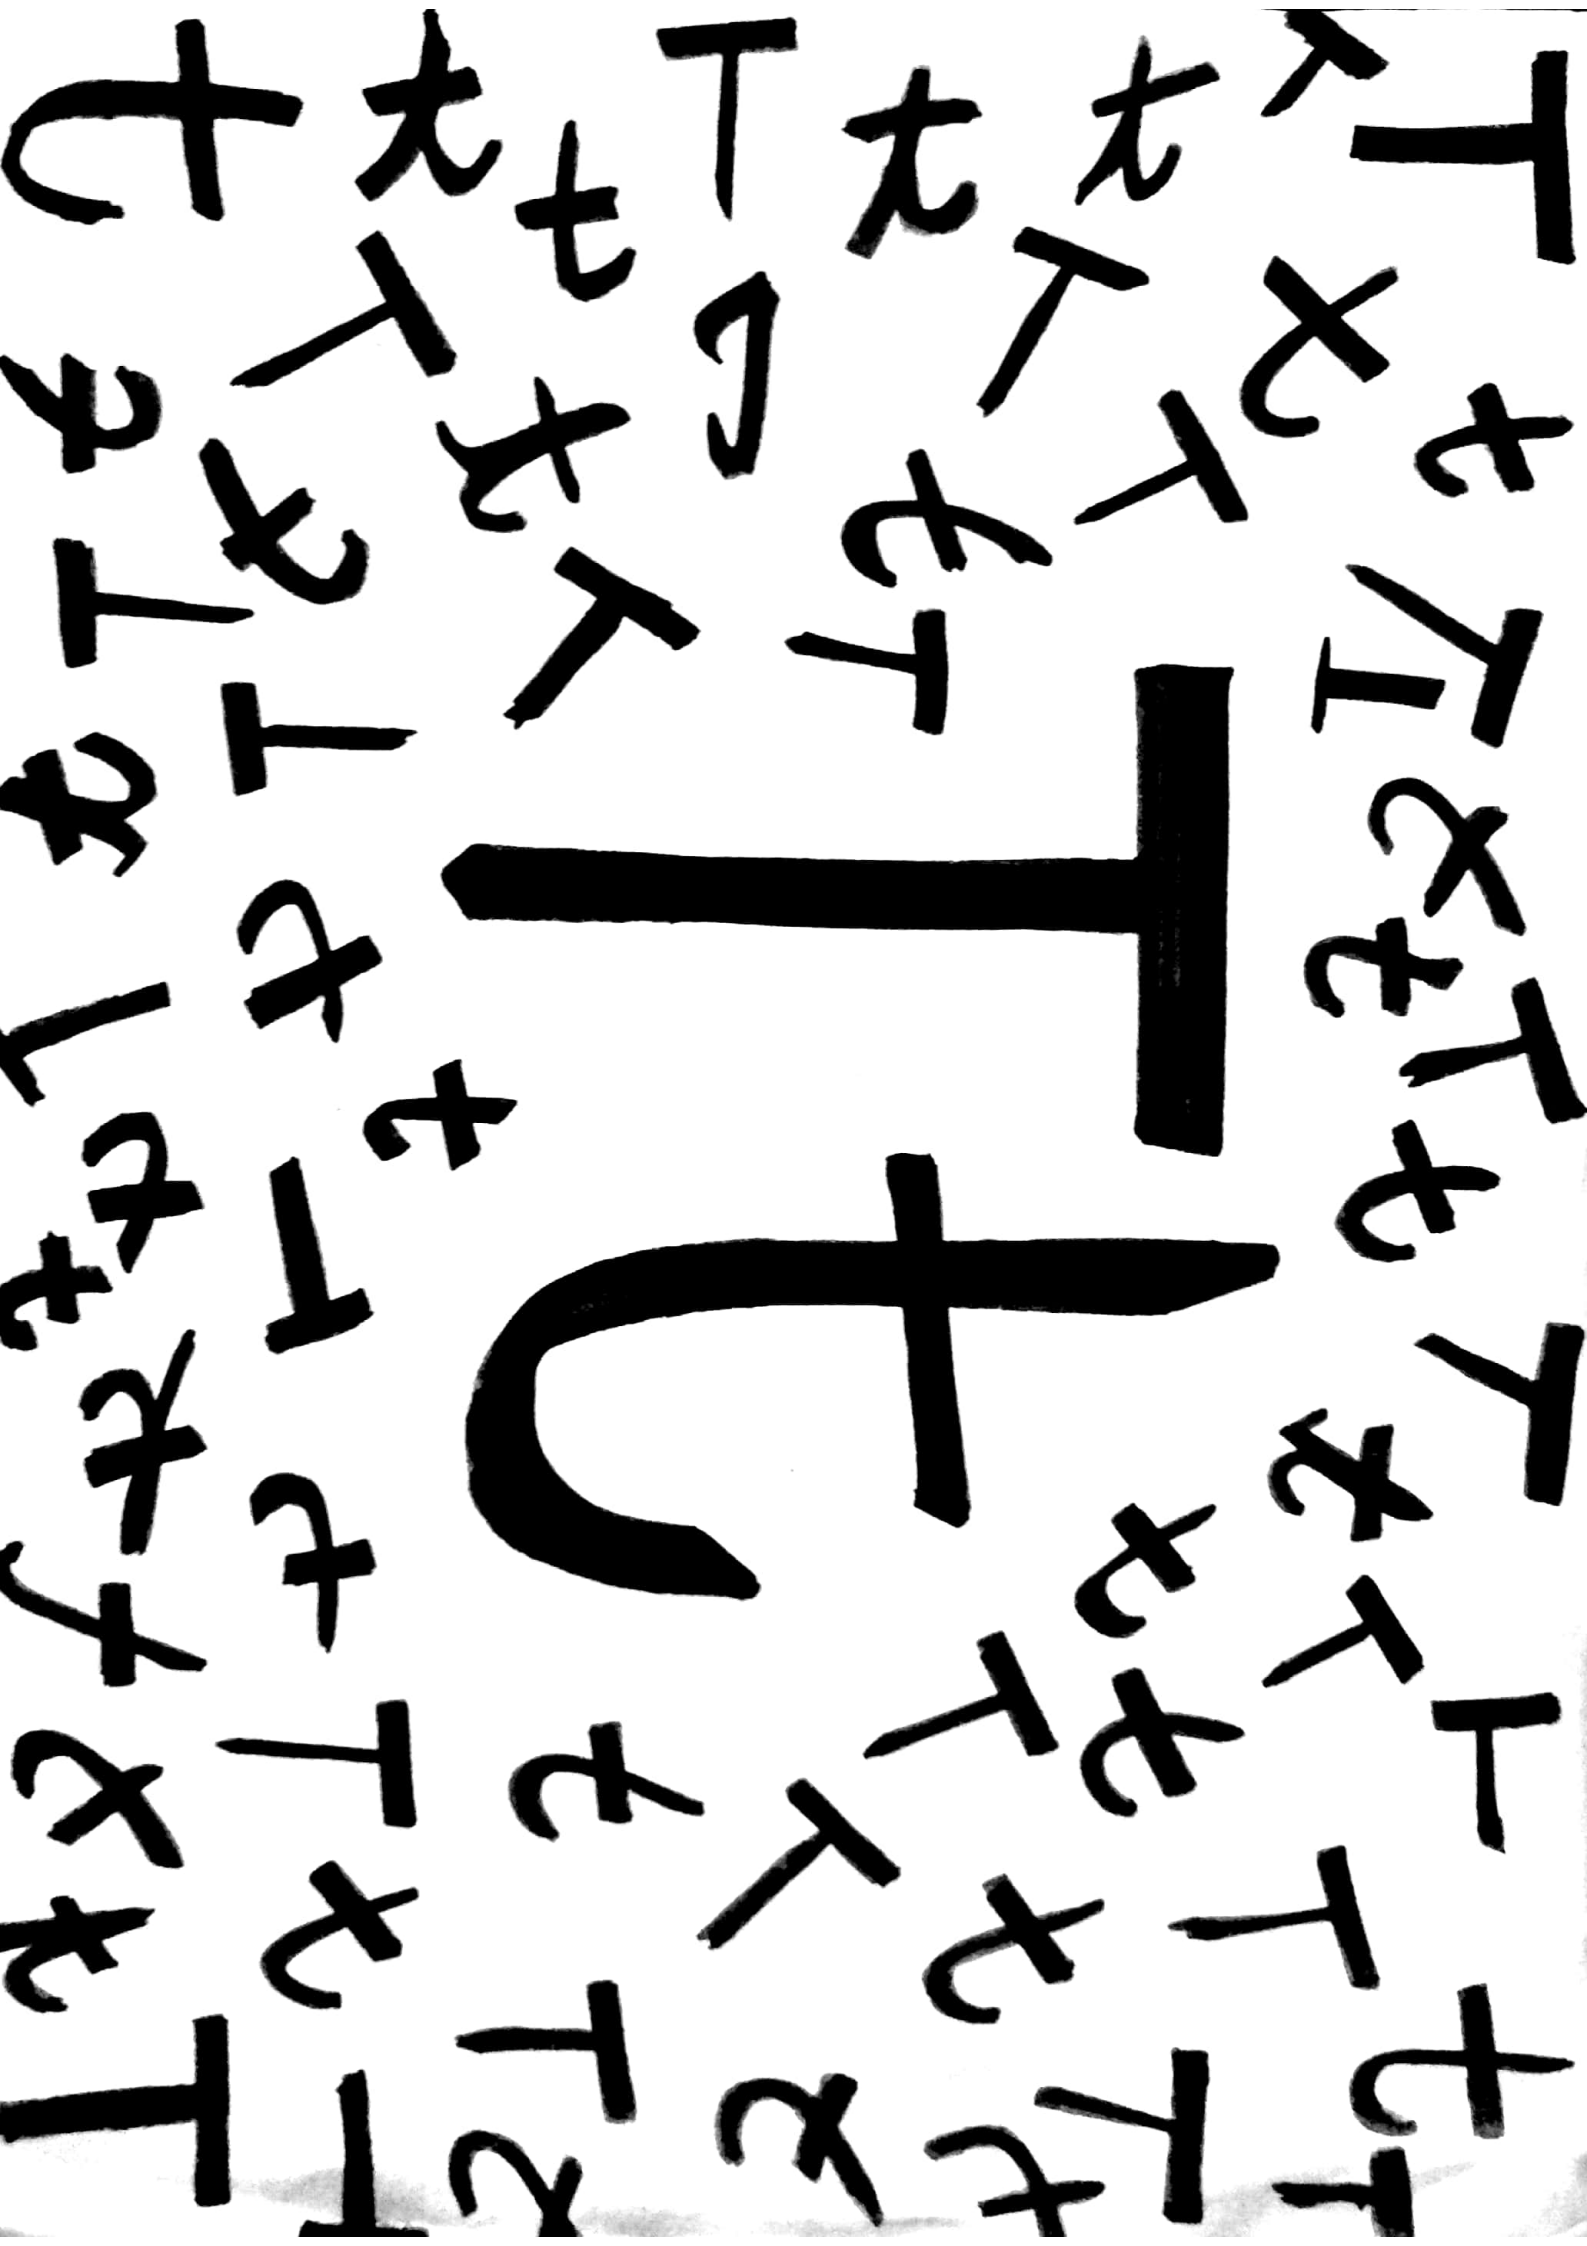

A collection of handwritten letters 'R' and 'r' in various styles. In the center, there is a large, bold, black 'R' and 'r'. Surrounding this central pair are numerous smaller, handwritten 'R' and 'r' characters in different fonts, some cursive, some more formal, and some appearing to be practice letters. The letters are scattered across the page, with some 'R' and 'r' appearing in the top left, top right, bottom left, and bottom right corners. The overall composition is a collage of the letter 'R' and 'r' in various handwriting styles.
